Iona Island Naval Ammunition Depot Site, Stony Point, NY

FACT SHEET

Dec 2007

DESCRIPTION: .....

The site is located in the Stony Point, Rockland County, New York. The Department of the Navy utilized 122.9 acres of the Palisades Interstate Park Commission property as an naval depot between 1899 until 1965. In 1957, the Navy declared the parcel to be excess and the parcel was turned over to the General Services Administration (GSA). In 1960, GSA was given jurisdiction over the property and used the site for records and raw materials (copper and rubber) stockpile storage, while the Maritime Administration used the main wharf for occasional transshipment of heavy freight. In 1965, the property was acquired by the Palisades Interstate Park Commission, who is still the current owner of the Iona Island Naval Ammunition Depot site.

AUTHORIZATION/PROJECT DESCRIPTION: .....

The former Iona Island Naval Ammunition Depot Site is located in the Stony Point, Rockland County, New York. The Iona Island Naval Ammunition Depot Site is being investigated under the Defense Environmental Restoration Program for Formerly Used Defense Sites. The Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 authorized that program.

STATUS:.....

Corps has performed the field work for the site investigation of former Iona Island Naval Ammunition Depot Site. A second Technical Project Planning (TPP) Meeting will be held with interested stakeholders to report the results of our Site Investigation. Upon completion of this second TPP Meeting, a final report will be issued with its findings recommendations.
